Accreditation recommendations to the College and year of recommendation	Actions taken by the college to address recommendations	Improvement results
During SFCC’s five-year NWCCU accreditation interim visit (October 9-10, 2008), there were no recommendations made to the college. The submitted five year report from SFCC may be found at the following internet site.  http://www.spokanefalls.edu/College/Accreditation.aspx Please find at the following internet site, the letter of reaffirmation of the NWCCU visit and the actual report from the NWCCU team. On pages 13 and 14 of the report, please note that there are NO	While no recommendations were made to the college during the five-year interim visit of October 9-10, 2008 and all recommendations made from the October 2003 and subsequent reports and visits were addressed, SFCC continues to reinforce its adherence to its mission while taking necessary measures to enhance quality and to continuously improve.	No recommendations were made by the NWCCU to SFCC in the most recent 2008 visit. Two commendations were given to the college as follows (verbatim from the NWCCU report): 1. The college is commended for its institution-wide focus on student success. The attention given to meeting the needs of students is obvious at all levels of the college and the students report this attention as a major advantage of attending school at Spokane Falls Community College.

recommendations made by the Commission to SFCC, and there were two commendations. http://www.spokanefalls.edu/College/Accreditation.aspx		2. The college is commended for the climate of collegiality that exists between faculty in different disciplines, between faculty and administration, and for the renewed spirit of cooperation that exists between faculty at the Institute for Extended Learning and Spokane Falls Community College. There is a pervasive attitude of cooperation and focus on continuous improvement that exists at all levels of the institution. Please go to the following site for the actual document: http://www.spokanefalls.edu/College/Accreditation.aspx
